

Gouvernance et responsabilités / Governance and Responsibilities

Version 1.0 - 11 July 2026

Direction

Giulia Caravelli is presented publicly as Director of the Foundation. The published direction links humanitarian action with protection of data, images, minors, evidence and context.

Decision principles

No public claim should exceed available evidence. Conflicts of interest should be declared. Sensitive images and personal data require a protection-first review.

Publication responsibility

Every public project page should identify its status, update date, evidence basis and any limitations.

Publication notice: this document states the Foundation's published principles and current public scope. It is not an audited financial statement, a statutory registration certificate, or independent third-party assurance.
