

Protection des mineurs et éthique de l'image / Child Safeguarding and Image Ethics

Version 1.0 - 11 July 2026

Protection before publication

The dignity and safety of children and vulnerable persons take priority over communication value.

Consent and context

Consent, rights, location and context must be checked. Faces, names and identifying details should be reduced or withheld where publication may create risk.

No spectacle

The Foundation avoids using fragility as emotional decoration. Images are classified as documentary, illustrative, art direction, under verification or authorised.

Publication notice: this document states the Foundation's published principles and current public scope. It is not an audited financial statement, a statutory registration certificate, or independent third-party assurance.
